FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRINITY OAKS CELEBRATES EARTH DAY AND OVER 7 MILLION TREES PLANTED
One Bottle, One Tree® Funds a Tree Planting for Every Bottle of Trinity Oaks Wine Sold

St. Helena CA March 20, 2013 — In under five years, Trinity Oaks wine brand has turned its tree-planting program One Bottle, One Tree® into thousands of new forest acres. The One Bottle, One Tree® program started in July of 2008 and funds a tree planting for every bottle of Trinity Oaks wine sold. This Earth Day, Trinity Oaks' will celebrate helping to plant over 7 million trees, enough to cover New York City's Central Park 22 times.

In partnership with the non-profit organization Trees for the Future, the goal of the One Bottle, One Tree® project is to help restore tree cover to tropical landscapes throughout Africa, Asia and Latin America. "We were delighted that Trees for the Future chose to partner with us to help protect the environment – a critical and important commitment that both organizations share," said Tim Peters, marketing director for Trinity Oaks. "With this program, we have the power to plant millions of trees in areas of the world most in need of reforestation. Trees provide food, energy and income, and help reverse the impacts of land degradation —enabling communities to achieve long-term economic and environmental sustainability. Trees also sequester carbon dioxide and provide oxygen, filtering the air and helping stave off the effects of climate change."

Consumers can help the environment while enjoying five California varietals of Trinity Oaks wines: Pinot Grigio, Merlot, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay. Trinity Oaks grows grapes in coastal climates which impart vibrant and expressive flavors and aromas. Trinity Oaks' bottle labels and marketing materials are made from 100% post-consumer-recycled paper.

Trinity Oaks wines are available at restaurants, grocery and wine stores nationwide and retail for $8. For more information, consumers can visit www.TrinityOaks.com or www.OneBottleOneTree.com to see the live tree-planting ticker.
